

Shawna Morning Bull

DIRECTOR-ALBERTA

Shawna Morning Bull is a member of the Piikani First Nation located in southern Alberta. Shawna received a diploma in Business Administration and a Certificate in Criminal Justice from Lethbridge College in 1995. She has also attended the Banff Centre for Management.

Shawna is presently employed as the Manager Business Development at Community Futures Treaty Seven (CFT7) in Calgary, Alberta. In this capacity she is responsible for the overall direction, evaluation, and operations of the various development initiatives which the Community Futures Treaty Seven is currently involved in or wishes to pursue. Shawna has been employed by Community Futures Treaty Seven for 4 years. Prior to CFT7 she was a Business Loans Manager with Alberta Indian Investment Corporation and a Business Support Officer with Indian Business Corporation. She is also the Secretary for Piikani Resource Development Corporation Board of Directors, an entity operating on the Piikani Nation to develop, design and implement projects, programs and services for the benefit of her First Nation economy.

Shawna is married to Wade and together they have 5 children. She enjoys attending her children's activities such as basketball, hockey, mixed martial arts, wrestling and they all enjoy hitting the powwow trail.

CANDO DIRECTOR-ALBERTA

E-mail: Shawna@t7edc.com

Phone: (403) 238-9100